FOREWORD

During this school year, Sputnik, the Explorer, and Vanguard were all placed in orbit. With all the excitement attendant upon these achievements, a greater interest has centered upon the schools which must train future citizens to live in this advancing scientific age.

The Winneshiek of 1958 is a pictorial review of Logan High School in the opening year of this interplanetary era.

Division and end pages for the 1958 WINNESHIEK were planned and executed by Don Thompson under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Millam.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, Richard Kirkhorn

Deadlines, rubber cement, reams of paper, and dozens of pictures are the basic ingredients for the annual staff. Add to these ingredients six editors, some fifteen staff members, a photography crew and a business staff, then beat with one editor-in-chief. This recipe manages to remain on mixed-up jumble until late in May when the efforts of all come out in one grand finished product — a Winneshiek.

Although it might not seem to be so, the work of the staff begins early in September and lasts until the distribution of the annuals takes place. The work of the editor-in-chief begins in May of the previous school year. The staff is composed of the editor-in-chief, seven staffs, and a photography crew.

The editor-in-chief this year is Richard Kirkhorn. He has many assorted jobs. He is required to draw up a "dummy" annual, choose a cover and theme, and see that the staffs get their respective work done. He chooses the pictures for the annual. He makes the final copy of each page and pastes the pictures on it. He completes the annual, making sure everything is correct and finished by the deadline.

WINNESHIEK STAFF

KIRK'S COURIERS

The write-up editor is Dolores Heyer. She supervises the write-ups that accompany each activity and biography that is included with each teacher's picture. Working under her are Marilyn Olson, Joan Bugbee, Jeanne Dalzell, Shirley Riniker, Alyce West, Linda Nelson, JoAnn Joles, Karen Johnson, and Karen Currie. This staff also performs the copy reading duties.

Heading the composition staff is Ken Schomburg. Working with him are Judy McKenzie, Pat Balfany, and Judy Woodard. Their job consists of arranging in alphabetical order and cutting and cementing the pictures of the underclassmen. In addition, this busy staff must do the final paste-up of the yearbook.

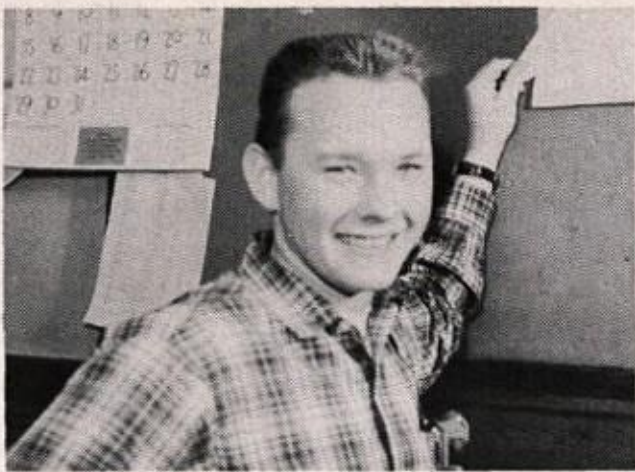

The boys' sports editor is John Main. Under John's jurisdiction are the pages on football, basketball, baseball, golf, and tennis. He has the right to choose the action shots he wishes, and he is required to write a summary on each sport.

Mary Peacock is the girls' sports editor. She is responsible for the write-ups on the Pep Club, G.A.A. and the cheerleading squads. She also has the right to choose the action shots she desires.

The job of arranging the index belongs to Linda Nelson. She must make a list of the students' names and record the number of all the pages on which these students appear.

PHOTOGRAPHY CREW

BUSINESS STAFF

ART EDITOR, Don Thompson

The art editor is Don Thompson. He is responsible for the drawings on the division pages and on the inside lining of the front and back covers.

The action and group pictures throughout the annual are the work of the photography crew. Don Rice and Gary Regez are the photographers. Filing the pictures and making a picture schedule is the job of Judy Kraft, the Winneshiek librarian.

Five girls work on the business staff. They are Joanne Harget, Ann Wartinbee, Mary Hetland, Diana Grupp, and Barbara Jenks. The girls have several duties to perform. They do the soliciting for the ads, help on the collection and mailing of bills, and they work with Mr. Hartig when the individual pictures of the students are distributed and sold to the students.

The Advisors for the Winneshiek are: Miss Patricia Mahoney, publication advisor; Mr. Robert Hartig, business advisor; and Mr. Walter Ranis, photography advisor.

ROVING REPORTERS

Gossip, sports events, drama, and all school affairs are sources of news to the Log staff. The Log is published every month by the students of Logan who are interested in writing. The Log gives such students the chance to show their abilities and to further develop their talents. These students write news, feature stories, and also dabble in poems and themes.

There are about thirty-five students working on the Log this year. These students are from the grades ten through twelve.

The editors for the Log this year are: news editors — Alice Anderson and Nancy Barton, feature editor — Julie Aiken, and sports editor — Dave Thompson. The duties of the editors include giving assignments, laying out the plans for their pages, and proof-reading finished assignments. Each editor has his own page or pages. The news editors are in charge of the first and third pages. The feature editor is in charge of the second page, and the sports editor is in charge of the fourth page.

Reporters for the Log are: Linda Nelson, Marilyn Olson, Barb Gilbertson, Janet Wensel, Karen Johnson, Anita Smith, Karen Currie, Mike Main, Tom Knutson, Tom Nibbe, Judy Woodard, Joan Bugbee, Mary Martin, Nancy Haugen, Pat Ames, Mary Peacock, and Dave Larson. To qualify to report for the Log, the student must write an article at the beginning of the year which is judged by the editors. The reporters selected are given assignments by the editors which are to be handed in on a certain date, which is called a deadline. Each homeroom is also represented by a special reporter who reports all of the homeroom news.

The typists for the Log are: Dolores Heyer, Carol Gruen, Shirley Baeder, Margaret Campbell, Peggy Kellicutt, Fayetta Mathison, Alyce Schroeder, Nancy Robinson, Pat Riniker, Shirley Riniker, Rosemary Berger, and Judy McKenzie. The job of the typists is to type the assignments which are handed in by the reporters. These copies are then proof-read by the editors.

The Log business staff has charge of mailing out copies of the Log to other high schools in several states. The business staff this year consists of Joan Bugbee and Pat Ames. Ads for the newspaper are sold to local business concerns at a set price per column inch. This helps to defer the cost of the paper. Other expenses of the publication staff are met through the amount provided by the student activity fund.

Advisors for the Log are: Miss Patricia Mahoney, Mr. Robert Hartig, and Mr. Walter Ranis.

DUEY'S DOERS

The students at Logan are fortunate to have a governing body such as the Student Council. Each homeroom elects a representative to the Council to act for the group. When a person has served on the Student Council for two years, he receives a gold pin as a reward for his services.

The members of the Student Council are very active in doing extra work to benefit the school. They are in charge of the refreshment stand at the football and basketball games, and they decorate the school attractively at Christmas time. This year, instead of the usual Christmas tree in the main hall, two trees were placed in the auditorium, and a Christmas greeting was placed in the hall. The Council has appropriated funds for a new trophy case which will be placed in the main hall. Members also send Care packages and have an active part in the clothing drive.

The big social event in the spring is the Senior Prom. This is sponsored by the Student Council in co-operation with the Art Department.

This year a new event sponsored by the Student Council is being introduced to the Logan students. This event is the Twirp Season, which is held for four days. The rules connected with it make it an enjoyable four days for all who participate.

All of the students at Logan look forward to the Student Council elections in the spring. The student body is divided into two parties, and a campaign manager is appointed for each party. Dances and other events are sponsored by each of the parties. Election time is a time to have fun, but it is also a time to be serious, for the students must elect good officers to govern the school for the next year.

The officers of the Student Council this year are: Richard Doolittle, president; Phil Nohr, vice-president; Helen Domstrich, secretary; George Nelson, treasurer; Dave Horton, senior high representative; and Tom Nibbe, junior high representative.

Mr. Raymond Sauer is the advisor of the Student Council.

Where will you find all the future secretaries and stenographers from Logan? Why, in any of the rooms in the business education department, of course. These girls, who are in the junior and senior classes and who are taking a business education course or elective subjects, make up the Business Education Club. There are approximately forty members in the Club, and the meetings are held on the fourth Wednesday of each month.

The Club elected the following officers for 1957 and 1958 at its first meeting: Sarah Stenberg, president; Patsy Farley, vice-president; Barbara Lund, secretary; and Pat Powers, treasurer. The rest of the members are divided into three committees. These are: the social committee of which Pat Haugen is the chairman; the publicity committee of which Janet Wensel is the chairman; and the program committee of which Nancy Barton is the chairman.

Among the social activities of the Club this year was a box lunch exchange, a Christmas party, and a picnic. Programs included a talk by a graduate of the department who is working at Tranes, a visit to an office, and a panel discussion moderated by a speaker from the employment office. As a fund-raising project, the organization sold candy.

As the club was reactivated only last year, there was need of a new constitution. The constitution, which was drawn up by a committee appointed for that purpose, was accepted this year.

The purpose of this club is to help the girls learn more about actual business; things that cannot easily be taught in the classroom. The field trips and speakers from local businesses help to accomplish this goal. This organization represents an opportunity for each member to develop her personality into one which will enable her to become a competent member of the enormous business world. The members are called upon to perform various duties, thus encouraging their sense of responsibility. These responsibilities have led to confidence in work. Membership has inspired improvement in scholarship, promoted school loyalty, and provided recreation and cooperative participation.

Miss Helen Gilson is the advisor of the Business Education Club.

ROMAN REVIVERS

The Latineers is a club consisting of first and second year Latin students at Logan High School. The advisor of the club is the Latin teacher at Logan.

The Constitution was drawn up by a special Constitution committee chosen by the members of the clubs. On this committee were the following: Lynda Bronson, Jim Beranek, Joe Urban, Karen Knutson, and Harvey Ott. The constitution states that there are to be two meetings of the combined club every year. At the first meeting the officers are to be chosen.

The officers of the Latin club have Latin names. The president is called the consul; the secretary, scriba; the treasurer, quaestor; and the program chairman, aedile. The following officers were elected by the combined club: consul, Joe Urban; scriba, Karen Knutson; quaestor, Chester Britt; and aediles, Lynda Bronson and Bob Slaback.

In the first year club the officers are: consul, Mary Hetland; scriba, Mary Swords; quaestor, Barbara Allen; and Karen Luedke and Jim Beranek, aediles.

Officers in the second year club are: Ann Wartinbee, consul; Judy Kraft, scriba; Joe Urban, quaestor, and Joanne Harget and Orby Moss, aediles.

Each year a Latin banquet is held on the day of a Roman festival. At the banquet the second year students are guests, and the first year students are the slaves. Roman costumes are worn by all, and the menu is that of a Roman banquet. There is entertainment for the guests put on by the first year students. A hostess and host are chosen from the second year class.

Money-making projects consist of candy sales and the annual doughnut sale. This is put on by the second year class on the final day of the Student Council elections.

Programs during club meetings consist of talks on Roman dress, customs, games, homes, and architecture. There are spelldowns using Latin vocabularies, and a Latin game called Rota, which is similar to tic-tac-toe. These programs serve the purpose of being both educational and enjoyable.

HI-FI HEPCATS

An organization at Logan that is indispensable to the school is the Sound Crew. This crew consists of boys who are never found in the spotlight, and yet they contribute to the success of many of our school's activities.

Through the Sound Crew, boys are given a chance to gain some knowledge on different electronic devices. The boys in this group display their skill in various projects. These projects include distributing films to teachers for class use, keeping movie projectors in good working condition, and setting up public address systems for dances and games. They also take care of the timekeeping and scorekeeping for the basketball games at Logan. The leader of this organization is the boy who has the most experience and ability.

Hard work does not bother these boys of the Sound Crew because of the vast interest they have in this type of work. The Sound Crew is not all work, however. The boys combine fun with their work. One big party is held each year for all of the members of the crew.

For the accomplishment of their work during the year, the boys are awarded a letter. They can receive only one letter, and upon graduation, a gold microphone is awarded to place on the letter.

The faculty advisor of the Sound Crew is Mr. Walter Ranis.

Gary Christenson adjusts a light.

JOHN'S GENIUSES

There has been no organized stage crew this year. The production work was handled by Mr. Harlan's English classes. Without them, Logan would not have had its many fine stage settings. Curtains must be hung; lights, adjusted; scenery, constructed, sized, and painted; platforms, placed; and the stage proper and associated rooms kept clean. The classes spent many hours doing these tasks. They became well aware of the vast effort that is necessary to produce good results.

They were responsible for the curtained setting for the Thanksgiving play, the beautiful Bethlehem manger setting for the Christmas program, the unique divided stage for "David Charles," and the interesting Oasis setting for the operetta. They still have the settings for the Easter play and the Senior play to do.

Gary Christenson and James Nelson have been the stage managers. Ronald Butzman, Phil Nohr, Richard Nibbe, Don Thompson, Tom Knutson, and Joel Urban assisted with lights.

Jim Nelson builds up some scenery.

LITERATURE LOVERS

The members of the Library Club are a great help to all of the students and teachers at Logan. In previous years, the club was divided into two parts, a junior and a senior club. At the first meeting this year, the club members decided to have just a senior high club. At this meeting, the members also decided that they would meet once a month on a Thursday.

The Library Club trains its members to be student librarians. They help the librarian in several different ways. During their free periods, they can usually be found in the library checking out books and performing several other helpful duties. Among these are dusting the books and shelves, putting books away, and helping with the inventory. They also read the shelves to see that the books are in their proper order.

The members of the club do a great deal of work, but they also take time out for entertainment. A Halloween party was held on October 24. Several games were played and refreshments were served. A Christmas party was also held, and the members went on a picnic this spring.

In December the Library Club sponsored a Faculty Tea, which was held in the library. Cookies, coffee, and tea were served to the faculty members who attended. The president of the club poured the coffee and tea.

Several new members, both boys and girls, have been added to the club this year. Besides the duties already mentioned, the members also file magazines, work in the textbook room, and keep the library attractive. Performing these duties gives them a good working knowledge of the library.

The members do a great deal in making the library an attractive part of the school. The bulletin boards always have interesting displays on them, and during the Christmas season, the members put up a Christmas tree.

The officers of the Library Club this year are: president, Peggy Kellicutt; vice-president, Fayette Mathison; secretary, Ellen Fish; treasurer, Sally Streck; and Log reporter, Judy Burch.

The advisor of the club is Mrs. Odette Peterson.

WILLING WORKERS

The Junior High Council and the Senior High Council are the two divisions of the Junior Red Cross Council at Logan. Each homeroom elects two members to the Junior Red Cross Council. This group of students carries out the program of the Junior Red Cross. The program includes enrolling students as members, packing gift boxes, and contributing to the Children's Fund. Money is collected throughout the homerooms so that these boxes might be sent to needy children. The boxes contain useful items, such as toothpaste, soap, combs, pencils, and tablets.

Two special projects were worked on by the Red Cross this year. One of these projects was an album or small booklet describing our schools and the state of Wisconsin. It also shows action pictures of students as they do their work and as they participate in various activities.

The other project is a 78 rpm record of the Logan choir, band, and orchestra. In listening to this record, foreign children may learn to sing American songs and to enjoy our type of music.

The Senior High Council sent nut cups and tray favors to the people in the Old Folks' Home on Valentine Day. This is greatly appreciated by the people staying there.

Dick Cagle, a senior at Logan, was elected the president of the Senior High Red Cross Council of La Crosse. Logan is very proud to have one of its students representing it as the president of this organization.

The officers of the Senior High Council of the Junior Red Cross are: Rita Wittenberg, president; Lauren La Fleur, vice-president; and Ruth Freismuth, secretary-treasurer.

The Junior High Council assists the senior division in most of its activities. This year the council is remembering the people in the Old Folks' Home on Valentine Day. They are sending them valentines, and the home economics department is preparing decorated cookies and cupcakes to send along with the valentines. The council also sends nut cups to the Red Cross office on the Fourth of July for use during the summer.

The officers of the Junior High Council of the Junior Red Cross are: Sherry Berzinski, president; Charlene Notz, vice-president; Kathy Jaspersen, secretary; and Nancy Hendrickson, treasurer.

The advisor of the Senior High Council is Miss Mary Barnard, and the advisor of the Junior High Council is Mrs. Bernice Spooner.

FEATHERED FRIENDS' FRIENDS

Thirteen years ago, the Logan Audubon Club was organized by Miss Faye Aldrich. She has given much time and effort to interest students in bird study.

Membership in the Audubon Club is open to students in any grade. This year the group consists mostly of ninth grade boys. The members have an opportunity to earn a prize by performing certain duties, such as completing bird charts, making bird houses and bird feeders, attending club meetings, and reporting on nature hikes and books. The members also have projects to work on. One of the special projects this year was planned and assembled by Larry Fladhammer. He made a bird feeder which was placed outside the window of Miss Aldrich's room.

The Audubon Club members also learn to recognize birds by their appearance and calls, the habits of the various species, and how mankind can aid and preserve bird life.

The Logan Audubon Club is affiliated with the National Audubon Society, to which over seven million boys and girls belong.

At one of the meetings, the club had a birthday cake in observation of the Forty-seventh anniversary of the National Junior Audubon Club.

ACTIVE ATHLETES

A club organized about twenty-eight years ago at Logan which has no meetings, officers, or dues is known as the LC Club.

The members of the LC Club are those senior high boys who have won a letter in one or more of the varsity sports at Logan. Thus, letter winners from football, baseball, basketball, golf, tennis, and track automatically become members of this club.

The main purpose of this club is to promote good sportsmanship. The club members are found to be cooperative and active in school activities, and they maintain high scholastic standards.

The boys in this club do various jobs. These jobs include ushering at football and basketball games (both at the Mary E. Sawyer Auditorium and at Logan), taking tickets, watching the doors, and keeping discipline.

Everyone at Logan feels that this is one of Logan's most necessary and valuable organizations. The goal of every boy who is out for athletics is to win a letter that will entitle him to become a member of the LC Club.

The advisor of the club is Mr. Ray Nibbe.

HANDY HELPERS

The Senior Y-Teen Club is a very prominent organization at Logan consisting of girls in the sophomore, junior, and senior classes.

Girls who are members of the club have the privilege of participating in a great variety of programs and activities. Some of these during the past year were caroling at a local hospital, participating in the annual "Hanging of the Greens" at the YWCA, and ushering for Baccalaureate and other school functions.

For one of the club's programs, Heidi Traeger, who is an exchange student from Germany attending Onalaska High School, was the guest speaker. Another time, a local pastor led the group with a talk and discussion on teen problems.

Two dances sponsored by the Y-Teens are now becoming annual affairs. One is held after a basketball game, and the other is a formal dance in February. The girls choose the theme and carry it out in decorating the new gym.

The club's officers for 1957 and 1958 are: president, Marilyn Olson; vice-president, Ann Wartinbee; secretary, Mary Molstad; treasurer, Karen Knutson; and historian, Judy Young.

Miss Elsie Engelke and Miss Mary Barnard are the Senior Y-Teen advisors.

Eighth and ninth grade girls make up the Junior Y-Teen Club of Logan. This year they were led by: Anita Hendrickson, president; Shirley Kleinschmidt, vice-president; Karen Jensen, secretary; and Gail Wardwell, treasurer.

The Junior Y-Teen goals are: to grow as a person, to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God.

The Junior Y-Teen initiation differs from that of the Senior Y-Teens; the latter is serious while the former entails a series of stunts. This year new members were required to wear their clothes backwards with aprons and unmatched shoes and socks.

The club held its annual Christmas party in December and decorated eggs before Easter. The eggs were judged and sent to the La Crosse Children's Home.

The advisors of the Junior Y-Teens are Mrs. Mable Terpstra and Mrs. Betty Herreid.

PERT PAGES

There are thirty-two girls at Logan in the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades who have given up their study hall or homeroom to become office pages. The girls are chosen to work in the office on the basis of their grades, manners, appearance, and their willingness to work. It is considered an honor to be chosen to work as an office page.

The girls have many varied jobs to perform in the office. They check the attendance by collecting the absentee passes each period of the day and recording them on a master sheet which is set up the first period of the day. Every third and fifth period the office pages take the announcements around to all of the classes. These are the most important duties of the office page, but she must also deliver messages from parents, teachers, and organizations to the students, take care of the telephone messages, deliver packages to the teachers, and show guests of the school to the office or a particular room. In general, the office pages assist Mrs. Terpstra, Mr. Schwandt, Mr. Field, and Maribeth Hoogenhous, Mr. Field's secretary.

Although there is a great deal of work for the office pages to do, they also manage to fit parties into their busy schedules. The party may be a Christmas party or a birthday party for one of the girls in the office.

A girl can gain a great deal of experience by working as an office page. It teaches her to work with other people, to accept responsibility, and to follow directions. This type of work is an invaluable experience for girls who plan to work in offices after their graduation from high school.

The office pages do all that they can to help Logan run smoothly and efficiently. They are a great help to both the teachers and students at Logan.

The supervisor of the office pages is Mrs. Terpstra.

PRETTY PERFORMERS

The Girls' Athletic Association, which was under the leadership of Mrs. Jane Koel during the first semester and Mrs. Albina Hanifl during the second semester, and with the co-operation of its members, has a well-rounded program of activities each year. Any sophomore, junior, or senior girl who has an active interest in girls' sports is eligible to join the club. The G.A.A. strives to promote physical efficiency, character, good sportsmanship, and the wise use of leisure time among its members.

The officers of the club this year are: President, Darlene Borgedahl; Vice-president, Sharon Wagner; Secretary, Barbara Gilbertson; Treasurer, Dolores Heyer; and Award Chairman, Linda Nelson.

Sportheads are also chosen to assist the officers in organizing the various sports. Each one takes charge of her respective sport, gets the equipment ready, takes roll, and determines which members will receive credit for the sport. The sportheads this year are: Bowling, Marian Johnson; Volleyball, Rita Wittenberg; Softball, Rosemary Berger; Basketball, Sharon Farley, and Individual sports, Karen Blankenship.

The girls in the club have an important aim and that is to win an award for their outstanding work in the club. A point system is used by the club for the purpose of giving awards. The President and the Award Chairman each receive fifty points, while the officers each earn twenty-five points. The sportheads are allowed twenty-five points plus the sport of which she is the manager, and winning team members are given twenty-five extra points. All girls participating in the different sports receive points for their work. All of the records of these points are kept in the clinic office.

An emblem is the first award for which a member of the club strives. To win this letter a girl must earn 500 points. The letter is in the shape of an "L" with a small "C" inside of it. It is red and has white letters on it which say "G.A.A." The next award the girl is eligible to receive is a silver pin, for which she must earn 650 points. The gold pin, the highest award in the club, is received when the girl has earned 850 points.

Bowling, usually the first sport of the season is held at the Sports Bowl for a period of about five weeks. Marion Johnson received a trophy from the bowling alley for the most accumulative points during the bowling period. The next sports are Volleyball and Basketball. Teams are formed and tournaments are held to determine the best team.

The year is concluded with individual sports such as badminton, tennis, shuffleboard, and table tennis.

Girls' basketball proves to be fun.

Any girl in the eighth or ninth grade is eligible for membership in the Junior Girls' Athletic Association (Jr. G.A.A.), provided they show a keen interest in girls' sports. The purposes of the club are to help teach the girls good sportsmanship, and to help them become well-rounded individuals.

The Jr. G.A.A. holds meetings every Thursday night after school for the purpose of participating in various sports. They also hold business meetings about once every two months.

The most popular sport among the girls is swimming, which is held for a nine week period in the fall at the Central High School pool. There the girls have an opportunity to take the Red Cross beginners and intermediate swimmer's courses.

During the winter months the girls hold battle-ball tournaments, and basketball tournaments. They also play volleyball.

Badminton and softball are enjoyed by the girls in the spring of the year.

All their activities are not connected with sports, however, for they also hold a picnic every spring.

The Junior G.A.A. officers for the 1957-58 school year were: president, Sue Melbo, vice-president, Teri Ann Paulson, and secretary-treasurer, Paulette Konrath.

Miss Helen Harris is the advisor of the club.

ROUSING ROOTERS

"Onward Logan, Onward Logan, Grand Old Logan High" can often be heard outside room 112 as the enthusiastic Pep Club members conclude one of their many meetings. The 125 members of the club are joined together for the purpose of promoting good sportsmanship and helping boost the school spirit. Founded with the idea that everyone performs better with encouragement, the Pep Club goes to work to give that extra enthusiasm which helps to win Logan's games. Any freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior student is welcome to join the club.

The officers of the club during the 1957-58 school year were: president, Alice Anderson; vice-president, Joan Bugbee; secretary, Mary Mackie; treasurer, Cozette Eastman; and co-chairmen of the pep assemblies, Mary Martin and Ann Wartinbee.

One of the major activities of the Pep Club each year is the traditional Football Festival. The members willingly design and decorate the gymnasium for the dance and decorate the goal posts at the football game with red and white streamers and pom-poms. The decorations at the dance this year consisted of silhouettes of megaphones, leaves, and footballs, on the walls of the gym. The false ceiling was of red and white crepe-paper streamers. The throne was a black velvet backdrop with silver footballs lettered in red bearing the names of the queen and her court. A cheerleader was banked on each side of the throne. The general chairman of the Football Festival was Pat Ames.

Chosen queen of the 1957 Football Festival was Cozette Eastman. She chose Len Beranek as king. The girls of the court and the boys who escorted them were: Karen Blankenship and Earl Howard, Helen Domstrich and David Larson, Janet Dunham and Jim Luehne, Kay Jenks and Jim Blank, Mary Mackie and George Nelson, and Mary Martin and Richard Doolittle. The court reigned over the dance and the girls were introduced during the half-time ceremonies at the football game.

The members of the club also plan the various pep assemblies which are held during the year. They arrange for unusual and entertaining skits, and many members of the club participate in them. Buses to out-of-town games are also arranged for by the club for the purpose of getting as many Logan rooters as possible to attend these games, played away from home. The club also sponsors dances after some of the football and basketball games.

The girls also held several parties this year. Among these were a Halloween party and a Christmas party.

A special section is reserved for the members of the club at all "home" games. Much of the cheering at the game originates from this large section of enthusiastic girls.

Among the unsung athletes of Logan are the Gymnasts under the coaching of Mr. William Grode. You can find these lads working very hard during sixth hour and after school until around 4:30 in the hall between the stage and gym. Many times they journey to La Crosse State College to use their facilities. There they use the Trampoline and they also receive expert help from the college tumblers.

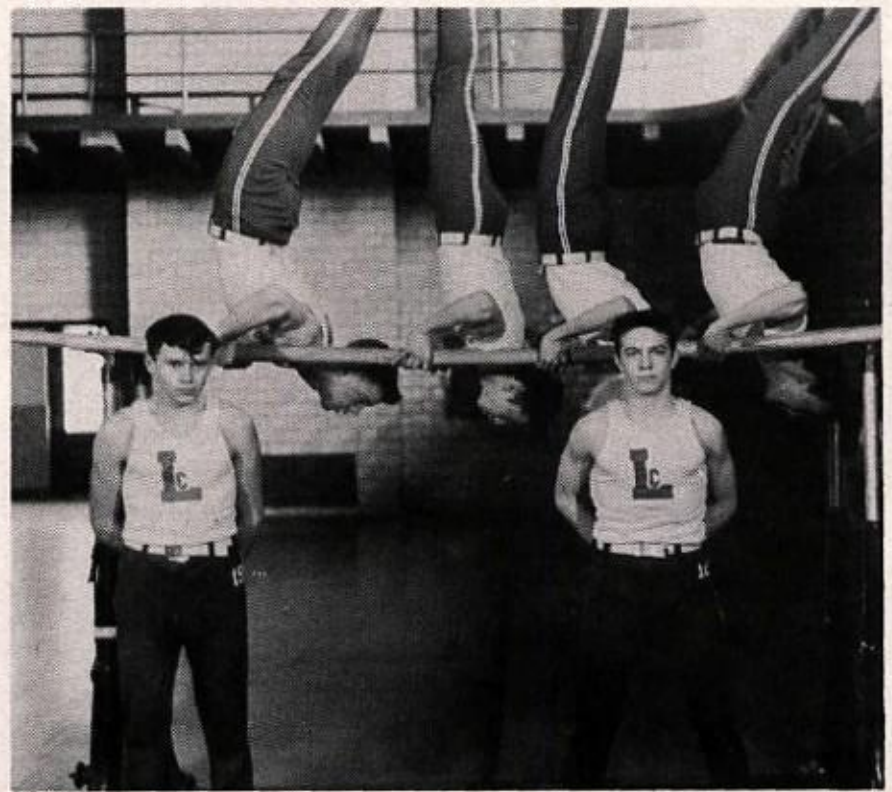

Members of the team are Len and Jim Beranek, Kenneth L. Knutson, Ray Lorenz, Allan MacGregor, and Jim Ender.

The tumblers perform between the halves of basketball games. At an open meet at the college this year, the squad took first place among the high schools entered.

At the state tumbling meet in Milwaukee, Ken Knutson took second place in the Junior Men's Division. He was the only high school student entered.

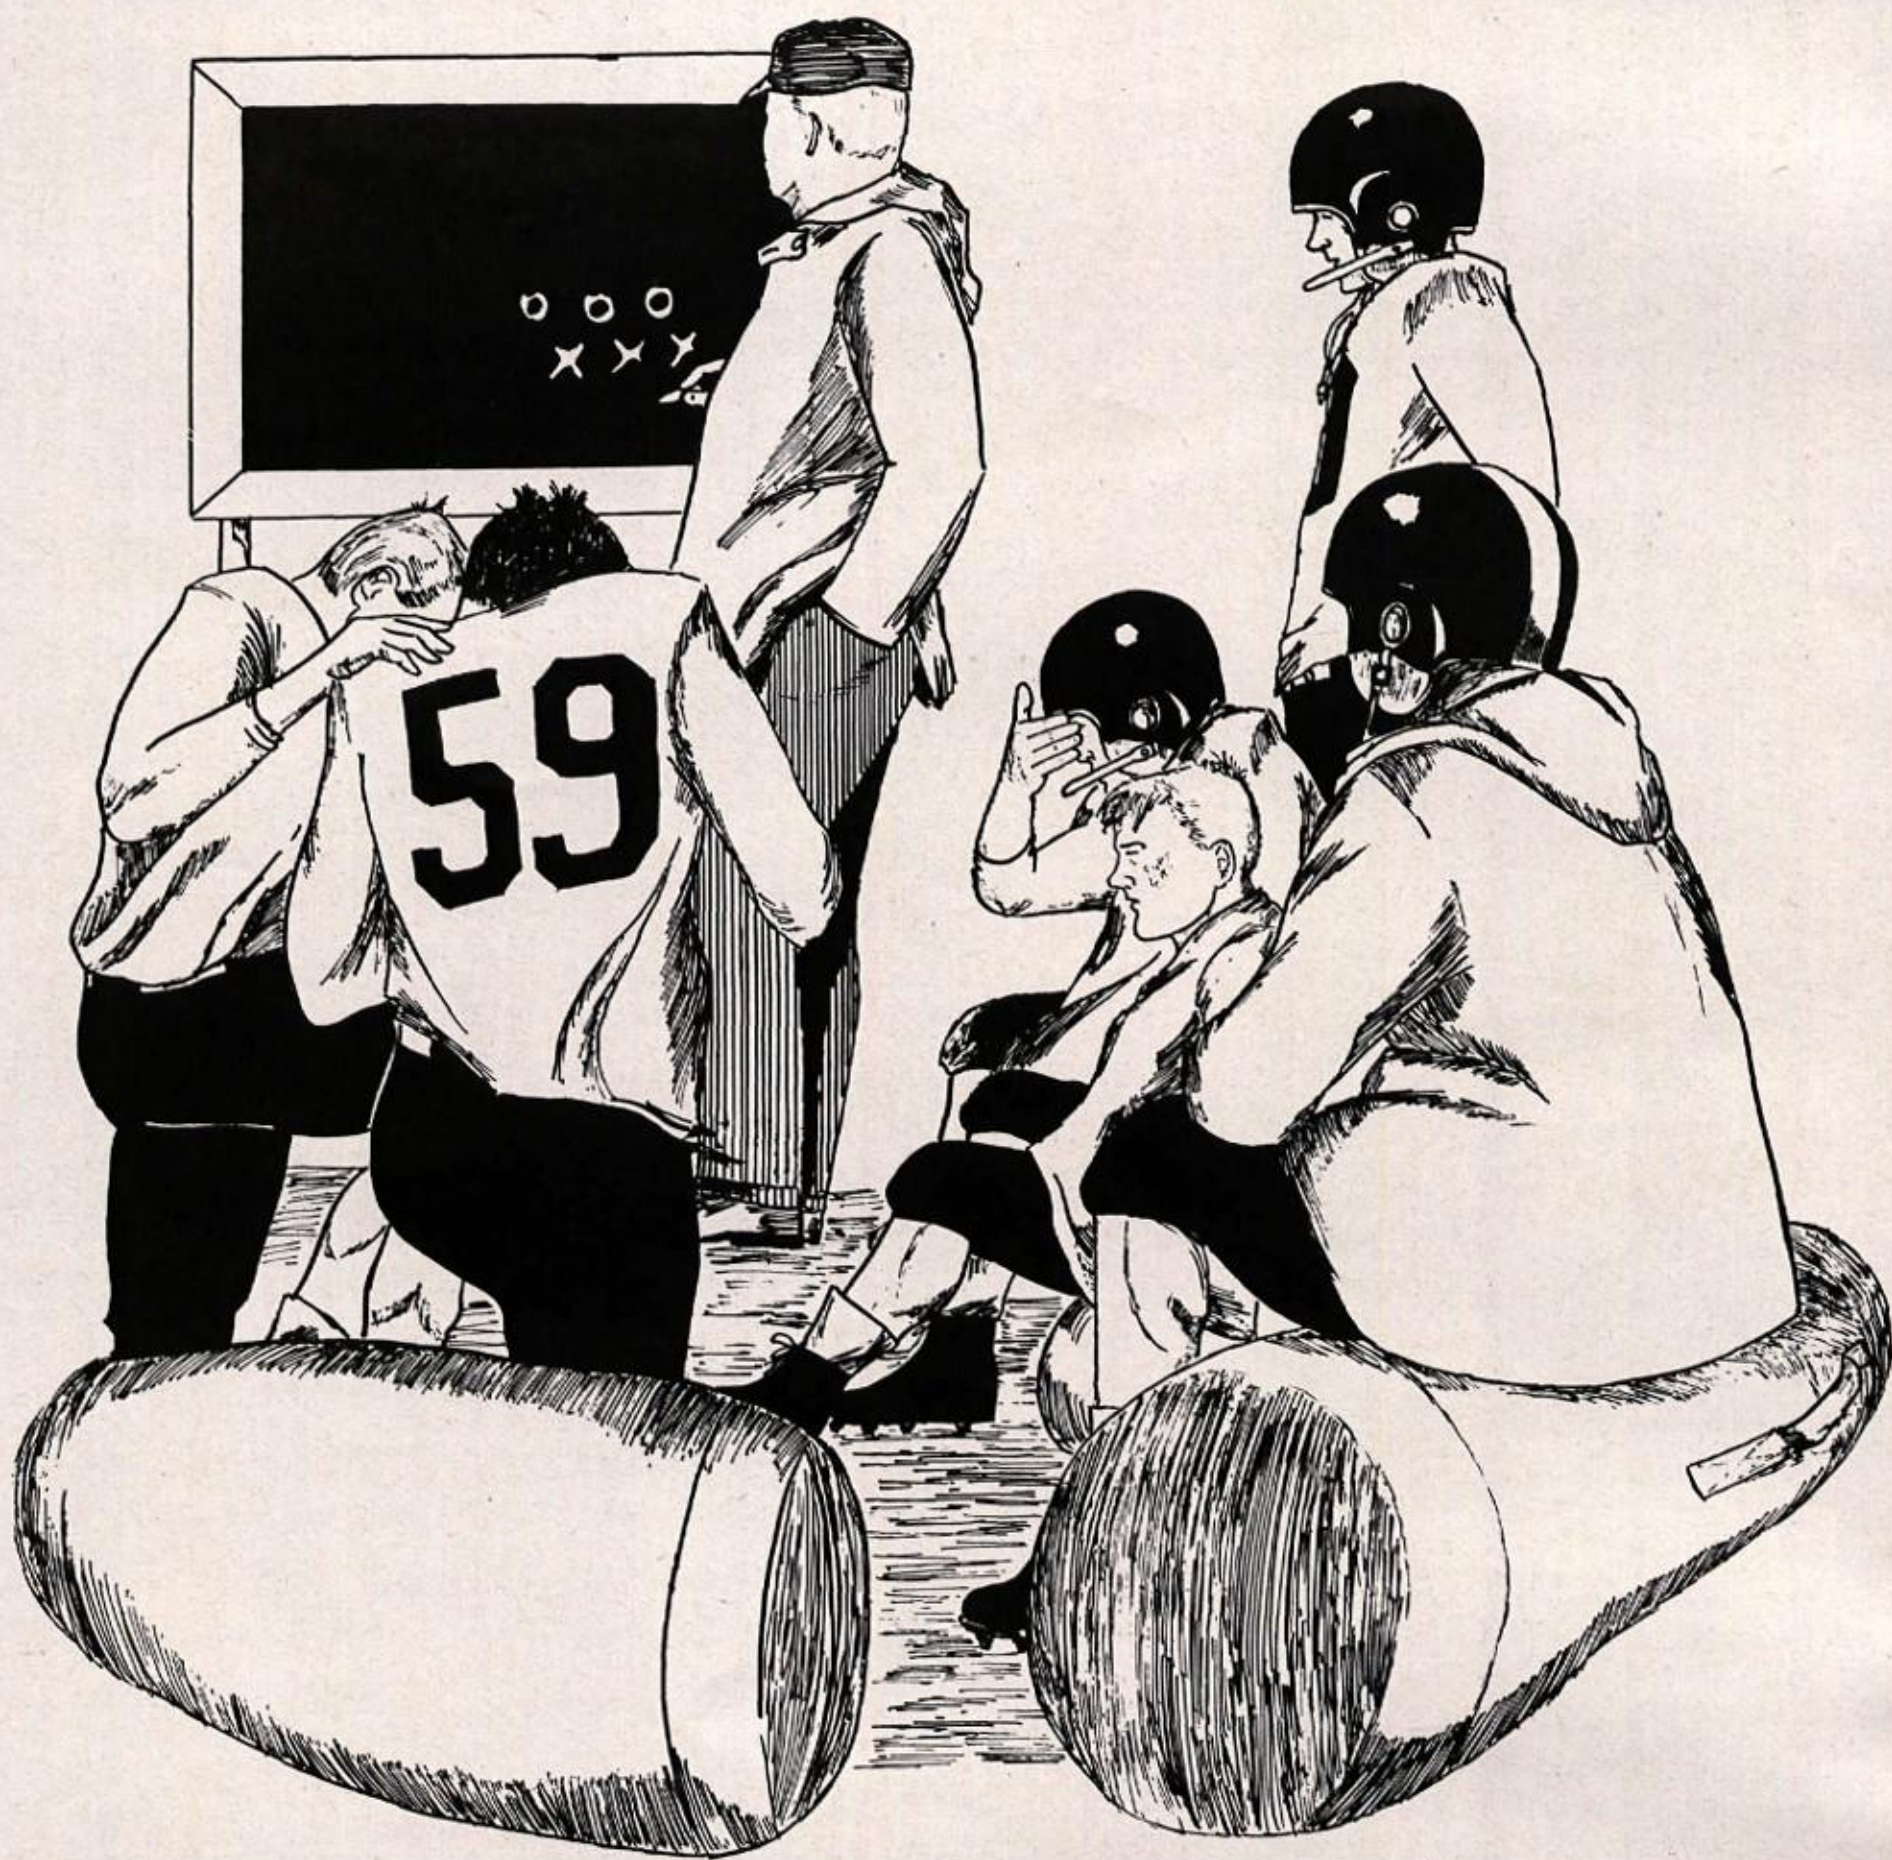

Here at Logan the tumbler's activities are limited to the mats and parallel bars because of limited facilities.

The Logan senior cheerleaders, six girls who are always "backing the boys," are chosen by a group of teachers in try-outs in the spring of each year. In order to become a cheerleader, participation in the cheerleading clinic, which is supervised each year by the senior cheerleaders, and membership in Pep Club are required.

These cheerleaders, in their familiar red satin slacks and white satin jackets, which are worn for the football games, and in red felt skirts, white sweaters, and black and white saddles, worn for basketball games, were supervised by Mrs. Jane Koel until the second semester when Mrs. Albina Hanifl became their advisor. The girls must set an example for the student body by promoting good sportsmanship between Logan and our many friendly rivals. They also endeavor to whip up the enthusiasm of the student body, and let the team know they have the entire support of the students.

Besides cheering at all basketball and football home games, they try to attend as many out-of-town games as possible. They also lead cheers in the pep assemblies, and each girl has charge of at least one pep assembly a year.

The captain of this lively squad is Mary Spencer, a senior, who has been leading Logan's cheers for five years. The other senior on the squad is Mary Martin, who has been a cheerleader for three years. Juniors on the squad and the years they have been cheering are: Barbara Jenks, three years, Dianna Grupp, three years, and Rosemary Berger, two years. Marilyn Otto, a first-year member of the squad is a sophomore.

One of the fondest dreams of every junior cheerleader is to some day obtain a berth on the senior cheerleading squad. With this goal in mind, they try to improve their knowledge of the "cheers" and learn the various movements of them better by practicing at least once a week.

Participation by the girls in a cheerleading clinic is required before they are eligible to become a member of the junior squad. The junior cheerleaders are chosen in try-outs in the spring of each year. The girls are judged by the senior cheerleaders.

This year there are five girls on the squad. These girls, who were supervised by Mrs. Jane Koel during the first school semester and Mrs. Albina Hanifl during the second semester, and by the senior cheerleaders, cheer only at the B-Team basketball games. They help promote better sportsmanship and interest in these preliminary games. Their uniforms are white wool sweaters, white wool pleated skirts, and black and white saddles.

The members of the junior cheerleading squad this year were: Linda Taylor, Faye Severson, Nancy Jenks, Judy Cilley, and Marilyn Dobbs.

TENNIS

The fighting '57 tennis squad under the capable coaching of Mr. Earl Kolcinski completed a splendid season, undefeated. The squad opened the season by trouncing Viroqua here 9-0. Two short days later the squad proceeded to easily defeat Winona with an identical score 9-0. The other wins followed in quick succession: Eau Claire 6-0, Aquinas 8-1, Eau Claire 6-0, Central 7-2, Viroqua 9-0, Central 4-3, Aquinas 7-2, and Central 6-3.

The team had four returning lettermen. Ray Schoenfeld who earned his fourth letter; Oran Wilder, who gained his third; Pete Hall, Jim Luehne, and Bob Tryggestad each received their second. Gary Zimmerman, a newcomer to tennis, received his first letter. Alan MacGregor and Gordon Terpstra saw limited action.

The agile team journeyed to Copeland Park for practice daily. The 1958 team will be without the skillful playing of Ray Schoenfeld and Pete Hall, who were graduated in June.

GOLF

Coach Arthur Bronson was again this year striving for balance and experience with his golf squad rather than wins. He split the varsity squad up and had them play with boys of less experience so the greenhorns could gain experience and tricks from the boys who had participated in golf for a few more years than they.

Carrying his theory a step farther, Coach Bronson did not have an A or B squad, but instead gave all members an equal opportunity to participate.

Pete Bronson, Jack Horton, Don Field, Tony Lemke, Gary Johnson, and Dave Horton were the six returning lettermen from the '56 squad for the '57 season. The other "tee men" who played were Rich Nibbe, Harvey Ott, Bill Rinartz, Gary Lubinsky, Jerry Nelson, and Dennis LaPoint.

The team traveled as far north as Eau Claire and as far south as Richland Center in search of opponents of the green.

The 1958 squad will be stocked with lettermen whom will no doubt tally up a number of wins for Logan since experience is the best teacher.

Pete Bronson, Jack Horton, Don Field, Tony Lemke, Gary Johnson, and Dave Horton were the recipients of their second letter. Harvey Ott received his first at the annual award program.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1958 Logan Rangers under the coaching of Coach Marshall Haugen, with the assistance of coaches Jack Fendt and Ardell Aarstad, finished the season with a record of two wins and six losses. Jule Smith and George Nelson were co-captains for the season.

Three out of the last four games played during the season were heart-breakers for the team and school alike. We were defeated in three straight by one small, yet telling point. The team clawed back in the last game of the season as it defeated an arch rival, Central, in a closely contested game on a cold night, 6-0. With this victory, the long awaited Ark of Victory was once more returned to its rightful home, our trophy case, where it is now proudly on display.

Receiving his third letter was George Nelson, a senior. Two year letter winning seniors were Jule Smith, Richard Doolittle, Don Field, Howard Duckworth, Larry Anderson, Len Beranek, Bill Luhman, Ron Young and Robert Maas. Seniors receiving their first letter were Earl Howard, Jack Horton, Jim Blank, Rich Nibbe, and Marty Gora.

Earl Jensen (13) breaks away for good yardage on this play before being stopped.

There were three sophomores receiving their first letter: Earl Jensen, Darrell Washburn, and Bob Soller.

The Rangers were outgained on the ground but were superior in aerial attack. We were also well represented on the all-city team, having four members. George Nelson was on the squad for his second straight year. Bill Luhman and Rich Doolittle had a berth for the first time. There was also Earl Howard, a newcomer to football in his senior year (nicknamed "The Little Ram" by the local press) who brought added glory to Logan as the highest individual scorer with 44 points. He is recognized as a splendid player. In addition to Howard's scoring we have Rich Doolittle with three touchdowns and one extra point for a total of 19 points scored. George Nelson with three touchdowns for 18 points. Don Field and Bill Rinartz, each with one touchdown, 6 points, and Dave Larson with two points after touchdowns. The remaining players with their strenuous efforts made these scores possible.

Dave Larson (37) tries for an extra point in the Logan-Campion game.

SPRING SPORTSTERS

Logan's diamond squad with Mr. Harold Blank as head coach and Mr. Marshall Haugen as his assistant finished the 1957 baseball season, with six wins and six losses.

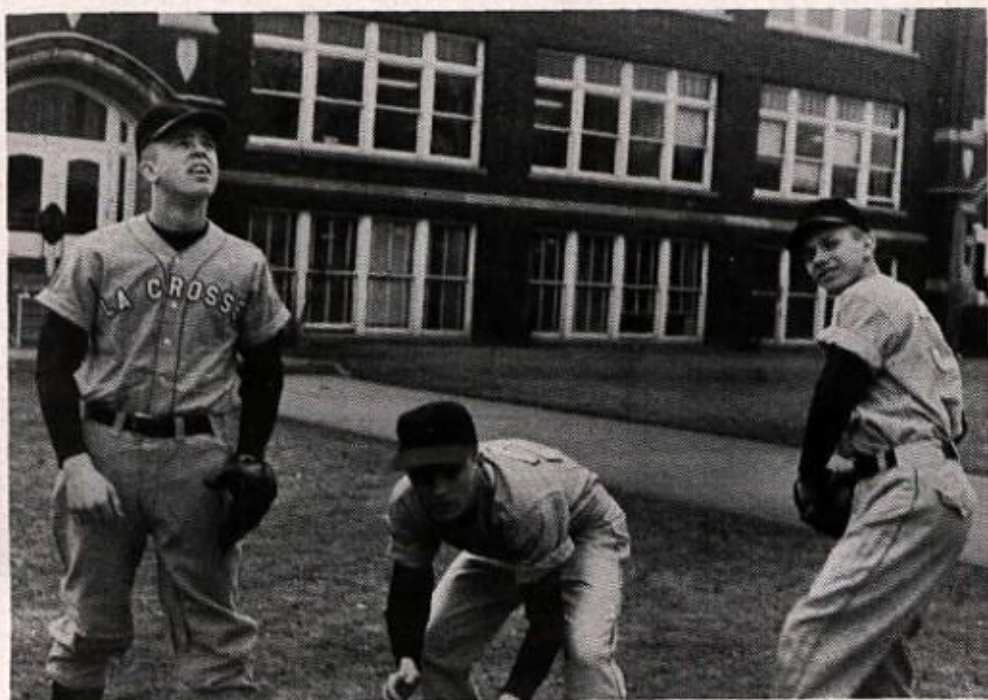

With fine playing and good sportsmanship, the team tacked up wins against Viroqua 8-5 in the opening game of the season, Sparta 4-3 in a close one, Winona Cotter in a mad scoring game 19-4, Sparta, again by 4-3, Aquinas 7-4, and beat Cotter in a closer game, 3-2. The defeats were suffered at the hands of Eau Claire in 12 innings in a heartbreaker, 5-4; another defeat by Eau Claire in 10 innings 1-0; Champion 1-0; Central 5-0; Aquinas avenged an earlier defeat, 15-5; and Central 2-1. Four of our defeats were by one run margins. We increased our wins from three in '56 to 6 in '57.

Logan lost four seniors in '57 including Russ Emerson, Larry Dahl, Al Eastman, and Dave Loomis. We have some very promising juniors such as George Nelson, Jim Blank, Ron Young, Ken Ames, Duane Johnson, Larry Anderson, Jerry Dahl, and Roger Emerson. Sophomores include Dave Larson, Jack Weber, Wayne Hauser, Jerry Delaney, Robert Severson, and Tom Griswold. With this as the nucleus for next year's squad, we should do very well.

The baseball team put in many hard hours of practice. Suggestions of their coaches will make them fine players.

The regular playing leaders were George Nelson with a batting average of .353; second was Larry Dahl with .333; third was Russ Emerson and Duane Johnson with .326. George Nelson scored 10 runs. Russ Emerson had 14 hits; Dave Loomis, Nelson, and Emerson were tied with three doubles; these boys and Ron Young and Jim Blank each had one triple. Dave Larson and Nelson had home runs. Emerson led with eight RBI's.

Jim Blank, Ken Ames, and Jerry Dahl play a little pepper ball.

NIFTY NETMEN

Logan's battling Rangers again carried the Red and White colors to great heights during the 1957-58 season. Coach Rod Martin's squad finished with an impressive 16 win, 5 loss record to rank 13th in the Wisconsin State Big 16.

We were able to raise ourselves in these rankings from 16th as the result of a stunning victory over 6th ranked Eau Claire. With revenge in our eyes, we proceeded to execute one of our best played games of the season. The shooting was deadly as was our tight and very impressive defense. Dave Horton shook the kinks out of long arms as he dropped in eight buckets. He was equally deadly at the charity line dropping in 11 of 12. Gary Johnson, in his highest scoring game dropped in 5 field goals and 7 for 8 at the free throw line. Johnson was also rough on defense as was Weber, who played his best defensive game of the season with extremely close guarding. Don Field also displayed his talent as he scored 10 points and held a high Eau Claire scorer down during the whole game.

The intra city race was closer than it has been in years with overtime games not uncommon. We defeated Aquinas 52-50 in our first intra-city game. In the next game Central defeated us on our floor despite our great comeback in the fourth quarter. The score was 40-38. Tired of being on the short end of intra-city scores, we showed Central how a determined team plays, especially under intensive pressure. Throughout the game and two hectic overtimes, with the crowd screaming, Logan proceeded to slowly strangle Central's championship hopes and strengthen ours. With Don Field's beautiful passing and clinch basket in the last seconds we remained in the game. During the first overtime, we traded bucket for bucket. Then Jack Horton caught the old hoop dead center from way out and swished one. Next, with his free throws, he sacked the game for us, 47-44. We then proceeded to exterminate a determined Aquinas 50-48 for the first championship since 1956.

We were also impressive in our tournament games at Tomah. We defeated Tomah the first night and Central, in a beautiful game, the second night. We lagged behind during the first half of this game and at the half were 10 points down. With a terrific surge in the second half, we roared ahead for good as Weber canned 4 points, Jack Horton a great 10, and Gary Johnson an equally impressive 12. Dave Horton also helped as he canned 3 straight buckets for 6. George Nelson played his usual dependable game as did Delaney when he subbed for Dave Horton at Arcadia.

At Baraboo, Delaney was able to drop in 5 buckets and 3 free throws for his highest game. Jack Horton had 5 big ones and 3 little ones for 13 in the Winona game. Cotter witnessed the deadly accuracy of big Dave Horton as he dropped in 12 buckets and 3 free throws for 27. During the Richland Center game, Field played his best, with effective defense and good shooting as he canned 7 field goals and 1 free throw. Reedsburg proved to be Weber's highest game as he found the range for 4 buckets and 2 free throws.

Our bench strength was very good. Coach Martin often relieved the starting five with such dependables as Jerry Delaney, Gary Zimmerman, Jim Blank, Dave Larson, and Wayne Hauser. Oran Wilder, Orby Moss, Dave Robertson, and Bob Severson also saw action.

On the all-city team we had Dave Horton who scored 415 and lead the city scoring race. We have fine players coming up next year and we should go places.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

In competition with various schools in the area, the freshman squad did very well. They racked up wins against Westby, 13-0; Viroqua, 26-6; Westby for the second time, 20-6, and Central, 28-0. Their only defeat was at the hands of Aquinas, 19-12.

Mr. Raymond Sauer and Mr. Arthur Bronson are coaching this future varsity squad of Logan. In the meantime, the boys are enjoying the opportunity of playing under real game conditions.

When the squad isn't busy playing other teams, they are occupied with furthering their knowledge of the fundamentals of football including footwork, punting, faking, passing, blocking, and various little tricks which must be mastered before they can become a well oiled, smooth running football machine.

These boys and their coaches spend many hours after school each night in practicing. No doubt they will be well rewarded when they become members of the varsity squad next year.

EIGHTH GRADE FOOTBALL

The 1957 eighth grade football squad was under the direction and coaching of Mr. Kern Kielley. What the squad lacked in size, they made up with pep and spirit. If you happened to journey down to Swanson Field after school during the football season you could observe these future varsity members practicing with great enthusiasm and diligence.

They divided themselves into squads for scrimmage work and games. When they were not occupied with this, they were busy working on the fundamentals of the game. If they continue the hard work and practice, they will soon be members of the varsity squad.

NINTH GRADE BASKETBALL

If there ever was a group of fired up boys, this squad contains them. They're full of vim and vigor and love to play ball. You can find them many nights after school and often after supper practicing in the gym under the coaching of Mr. Jack Fendt.

As they run through their practices, they gain valuable experience and quickly learn the tricks of the game. Many boys also practice their own special shot, feint, or lay-up.

The squad also has a playing schedule with other schools. They were able to defeat Aquinas twice, and West Salem once. They were defeated by Aquinas twice and the Trempealeau B team twice.

Next year you will find these boys competing for berths on the B squad and maybe even varsity. Attaining a position on either of these teams is the ultimate goal for these boys. They accomplish this by plenty of hard work and practice.

EIGHTH GRADE BASKETBALL

Mr. Kern Keilley has the important job of coaching eighth grade basketball. You will find Mr. Keilley and the boys down in the gym after school many nights each week. Some of the boys joined to learn the fundamentals of basketball. Some already knew something about basketball, but Keilley showed them many fine points.

The squad divides itself into teams for games, and the competition becomes quite fierce. All during these games and during the controlled practices these boys are striving to improve their game and to perfect themselves with the help of Mr. Keilley, who is constantly telling them some of the do's and don'ts of basketball. These boys enjoy the game and will be out for ninth grade basketball next fall.

Logan's 1957 track squad lived up to the high hopes coaches Mr. Aarstad and Mr. Sauer held for them. These "thin clads" extended their two year unbeaten dual meet record by capturing eight dual meets. The team also won its only tri-angular meet. In other large meets, with many schools competing, they finished higher in standings and total points than any recent Logan teams.

Senior shot-put record holder Rich Hellerude ended his four year career by placing 5th in the state in the discus. John Stange, competing for the first time, also set a school record in the 220 yard dash and won a trip to the state meet. He'll long be remembered for his ground gaining strides running third on our 880 relay team. Larry Smith turned to the mile this year to help strengthen the team; he also won a berth in the state meet in the 880.

Ronnie Butzman led the team in scoring, set a new school record in the broad jump, anchored our relay team, and went to the state meet entered in the 100 yd. dash, broad-jump, and relay. He placed fourth in the 100 on a very muddy track.

Hurdlers Rich Doolittle, Roger Nickerson, Robert Slaback, Len Beranek, and Armand Eggen won many points for Logan. Doolittle also doubled in the relays.

Phil Nohr won a trip to the state meet in the 440 yd. dash and the 880 relay. Joel Urban proved fine competition for Phil.

Leon Rose won many firsts in the 880 and just missed going to the state meet because of a slow heat in the sectionals.

Weight men David Smith, Earl Jensen, and Ralph Hembd served notice that they will be able to take over next year.

One of the most talented members of the track team was Earl Howard. His pole vaulting, high-jumping and running were some of the real "highlights." Orby Moss, Gary Slaback, Dennis Richmond, and John La Fleur gave him plenty of competition in pole vaulting.

Other fine performers were Kermit Bjorge and Rodney Stage in the mile; Don Nelson, Denny Kaufmann, and Jerry Longway in the 880; Art Wienke and Charley Goyette in the sprints; Loren Wardwell, Darrell Washburn, and Robert Soller in the shot and discus.

Two others who also worked very hard as team members were Fred Chicken and Jim Beranek.

HAPPY HARMONIZERS

The Logan Senior Choir is composed of eighty members from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. The choir rehearsals are held during the fourth period everyday, but the group can often be found rehearsing on week nights and weekends.

The Senior Choir made its first appearance this year at the first P.T.A. meeting. During the first semester the choir also performed in the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs. The highlight of the second semester was the choir's participation in the operetta, "Jerry of Jericho Road." The group also performed in the Easter assembly, the Spring Concert, the Baccalaureate service, and the Memorial Day assembly. The Senior Choir is also often called on to sing for various civic organizations.

While performing, the Senior Choir members are gowned in white robes with red satin stoles. The sleeves are lined with red satin, and the letter "L" is embroidered at each end of the stole.

The music in choir is varied so that the members will learn to appreciate several types of music. The choir has in its repertoire Negro spirituals, anthems, folk songs, classics, and modern selections.

Several small singing groups are formed by members of the Senior Choir. Eight of the boys have formed a boys' octet, and there are also three triple trios composed of girls from each of the three grades. A Swing Choir of about sixteen members was a new project this year. The members for this choir were chosen according to their singing ability.

The Senior Choir members receive their letter upon their graduation. Being a member of the choir is a profitable and enjoyable experience. The choir provides a background for musical activities after graduation. Former choir members are always a source of good music.

The officers for the choir this year are: president, Ronald Young; vice-president, David Thompson; secretary, Karen Blankenship; and treasurer, Jack Horton.

The choir is under the direction of Mr. Loyd Mieden.

Rhythmettes, a senior girls' singing group: Cozette Eastman, Marilyn Olson, Alyce West, Sandra Lehmeier, Shirley Harnish, Karen Blankenship, Pat Powers.

Tetrachords: Ron Young, Don Kibler, Bob Slaback, John Main, Dick Cagle, Jerry Layton, Chester Britt, and Howard Duckworth.

MELODY MASTERS

The students destined to fill the shoes of the graduating members of the Senior Choir are the freshmen in the Junior Choir. This year the Junior Choir is composed of only ninth graders. This is due to the fact that the eighth grade students take music as one of their regular subjects.

The Junior Choir is composed of fifty-five members. There are twenty sopranos, thirteen altos, fourteen tenors, and eight basses in the choir. The group meets for rehearsals on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday during the second period.

The Junior Choir made its first appearance this year in the Christmas program. The choir made a colorful picture as they sang "The Twelve Days of Christmas." Each choir member in the front row held a drawing of one of the twelve gifts mentioned in the song. This was a novel way of presenting one of the traditional Christmas songs. The choir also sang "Merry Christmas Bells," "White Christmas," and "Jingle Bells." This was the first performance of the Junior Choir under its new director, Mr. Armin Gossfeld.

The last performance of the choir is in the Spring Concert. The members then graduate from the choir and become eligible for membership in the Senior Choir.

The Junior Choir offers early training to its members. They are taught note reading and how to blend voices. This training makes it easier for the members to learn more new songs and to meet the high standards needed to enter the Senior Choir. Singing with the group provides a good pastime and healthy entertainment for all of the members. With its variety of music, the choir also helps to develop a love of singing and a working knowledge of music, which is valuable for both appreciation and participation.

Karen Jensen is the accompanist for the Junior Choir.

Shades of Blue: Gloria Mose, Lynda Bronson, Sandy Stewart, Barb Allen, Karen Johnson, Mary Swords, Patsy Reagles, Janice Parr, Karen Currie.

ORCHESTRAL OVERTONES

The Logan Senior Orchestra was originated by Mr. D. R. Wartinbee in 1928. At that time, the orchestra was composed of twenty-one members. The Senior Orchestra this year is composed of about thirty-five members. These instrumentalists enjoy performing together whether they are playing the classic symphony type music or the more modern, popular selections. This great variety of orchestra music, together with the satisfaction derived from good performances, makes it an enjoyable experience to play in the orchestra.

The Senior Orchestra made several regular public appearances this year as in the past years. Among these appearances were a concert for the Logan spring P.T.A., the Thanksgiving assembly, the operetta, "Jerry of Jericho Road," the Spring Concert, the Easter assembly, and, of course, Baccalaureate and the Commencement exercises. In addition to the regular section of orchestra music in the Spring Concert, the orchestra also accompanied the school chorus in several numbers.

This year the orchestra is working under a new director. The tap of the baton of Mr. Loyd Mieden brings the rehearsals in room 207 to order. The entire orchestra has regular rehearsals each day during the sixth period. The members are also expected to attend any necessary extra rehearsals that may be called.

As in several other school organizations, the work of deserving students does not go unrewarded. The system by which awards are given, however, has been changed this year. A merit system is used to determine who should receive the awards. A certain number of points are earned for attendance, performances, solos, etc. When the student earns a sufficient number of points, he receives his award. The first year award winner receives a red and white emblem in the shape of a lyre. Each succeeding year, the award winning student becomes the recipient of a gold bar to be fastened on the emblem.

Work in the orchestra helps to widen the musical interests of its members. The wide variety of the music played teaches the members to appreciate both classic and good modern music. The orchestra also helps to develop the special talents of its members.

The orchestra, just as a basketball or football team, must have teamwork. All of its members must co-operate in order for the orchestra to be a successful organization. It is an interesting and exciting experience to be a member of the Logan Senior Orchestra.

MELODIE MARCHERS

At the first home football game this year, fans found the Logan Senior Band entertaining them at half-time. The band went through various formations and played a song in relation to each formation. The Senior Band makes several performances each year. They play for all of the home football games and march in parades. The band marched in the Memorial Day parade, the La Crosse State College Homecoming parade, and the parade at the La Crescent Apple Festival.

A smaller band called the Pep Band was formed this year to play at all of the home basketball games. The group is composed of about eighteen members taken from the Senior Band. The Pep Band also traveled to some of the out-of-town games.

In addition to marching in parades and playing for all home games, the Senior Band also performs in the Spring Concert. The music is changed from lively marches to symphonies and other compositions by famous composers. While performing in the Spring Concert, the members are given a chance to wear formal attire. This is quite a change from the way they dress when marching in parades. When marching, the members wear red pants with a white stripe on each side, and red jackets with gold buttons. To add a final touch, a white crossbelt, white braid, and a gold buckle are added. The uniform also includes a red and white hat with a red plume. The uniforms are in the traditional West Point style.

The building of a good band takes a good deal of time. Hours of practice on the part of the band and its director, Mr. Loyd Mieden, are needed for perfection in music and marching. Every ten weeks, band tests are given to all of the members. They are graded according to their skill and attitude, and put in a position accordingly.

Another part of the band which deserves mention is the twirlers. This year the majorette for the band is Sharon Wagner. The line-up is composed of six twirlers. They are Shirley Riniker, Colleen West, Sherry Farley, Charla Mathison, Rita Paulson, and Renee Kibler. Besides twirling with the band during football games and parades, the girls also put on a twirling exhibition for one of the basketball games.

The officers of the Senior Band this year are: president, Mary Peacock; vice-president, Cozette Eastman; secretary, Alice Anderson; and treasurer, Tim Johnson.

MIDGET MULTITONES

The Junior Band is made up of twenty eighth grade students this year. Most of the students began their musical training in grade school. The group has rehearsals three times a week during third period. The band has balanced instrumentation which includes oboe, flute, and bassoon.

Perhaps the main purpose of the Junior Band is to prepare its members for the Senior Band. However, it also teaches them the fundamentals of music and acquaints them with broad musical literature, which is the knowledge of various types of music, such as overtures, marches, dances, chorales, and novelties. A knowledge of this kind is helpful to anyone who participates in a musical organization. The Junior Band always looks forward to making at least one public appearance in the spring.

The school owns a tape recorder on which the members of the Junior Band are able to record their own music and play it back. In the spring, the band members have instructions in marching. This is a skill which should be mastered by the members before entering Senior Band.

The director of the Junior Band is Mr. Armin Gossfeld.

MIDGET MASTERS

The Junior Orchestra is a small group of ten, hard-working players. The group meets fourth period, three times a week to practice. The Junior Orchestra, like the Junior Band, has balanced instrumentation. It includes violin, viola, cello, and bass.

The Junior Orchestra has two purposes. The first is to prepare its members for Senior Orchestra, and the second is to help them to get a wider knowledge of general musical literature. There is a great deal of variety in the musical selections of the Junior Orchestra so that its members may gain this knowledge of various types of music.

As is the case with all members of the music department, the Junior Orchestra members have an opportunity to practice in four recently completed practice rooms during their free periods or after school. This opportunity is one to be taken advantage of, for after becoming thoroughly acquainted with the instrument, it is much more fun to play.

From pizzicato to spicatto, these young players develop a comparatively fine orchestra after only one year in this organization.

The director of the Junior Orchestra is Mr. Armin Gossfeld.

TWISTING TRICKSTERS

The Baton Club, which meets every Friday after school, consists of twenty girls who are interested in learning the art of twirling. They are taught by this year's majorette, Sharon Wagner. The girls learn the fundamentals of twirling, how to march, and how to make up routines.

Six of the club's more advanced members are chosen to march with the band. This year they are: Renee Kibler, Shirley Riniker, Rita Paulson, Sharon Farley, Colleen West, and Charla Mathison.

PEPPY PIPERS

Logan is one of the few high schools in the state to have a pipe organ. There are eleven students who receive organ instruction from Mrs. C. I. Wollan. The girls take lessons during the noon hours and practice at assigned times after school.

Although the girls perform on several occasions, the Christmas season is the busiest time of the year. They recorded for two radio broadcasts and played for several Christmas programs. Several of the girls also serve as organists in their churches.

Karen Knutson consults Anita Smith and Ronald Young.

THE DEFIANCE OF DAVID CHARLES

Four productions, under the direction of Mr. John Harlan, comprise the schedule of the dramatic department this year.

The one act play "Our Thanksgiving Turkey" was featured during the annual Thanksgiving assembly. Jerry Layton, Karen Knutson, and Ann Wartinbee gave splendid performances in the leading roles. They were ably supported by Linda Nelson, Verdelle Radde, Sandra Stewart, Ray Lorenz, James Nelson, and Tom Nibbe.

A highly successful production of "The Defiance of David Charles," the all-school play was given before a large enthusiastic audience. The acting was uniformly superior; the divided set, the principal's office and the hallway locker room, was uniquely interesting; subtle light changes accentuated the acting areas. The play itself was unusual, a rare combination of heavy, tense drama and buoyant, hilarious comedy.

The drama cast, headed by Tony Lemke, Phil Nohr, and Don Thompson included Karen Knutson, Judy Kraft, John Main, Anita Smith, and Ronald Young.

The comedy was provided by Joel Urban, Gordon Terpstra, Don Thompson, Ray Aiken, Joanne Harget, Lynda Bronson, Alice West, and Marilyn Dobbs. The production crew was Gary Christenson, James Nelson, and Ronnie Butzman.

JERRY

Again this year our Christmas program contained both the secular and the religious. The Junior choir, directed by Mr. Gossfeld, presented Christmas in the lighter vein.

The Senior choir, directed by Loyd Mieden presented the lovely cantata "The Christmas Story" by Heinrich Schutz. It combined fine music, beautifully sung, enhanced by an appropriate setting and an attractive new set of costumes. The featured singers were, Joanne Harget, Richard Cagle, John Main, and Ronnie Young.

The musical production was a lively, tuneful operetta "Jerry." An excellent, energetic cast under the direction of Mr. Loyd Mieden, assisted by Mr. Harlan, Mrs. Hanifi, and Mrs. Neuhaus, sang, acted, and danced their way to a spirited, successful performance. The Oasis stage setting, the colorful costumes and the effective orchestral accompaniment added warmth and beauty.

The title role of Jerry was splendidly sung by Joanne Harget. The other leads, Mary Peacock, Richard Cagle, and John Main were in fine voice. Much comedy was provided by the Beans, Gerald Layton, Mary Swords, and Barbara Allen; the Banks, Chester Britt and Ann Wartinbee; the detective, Darrell Washburn; and the old time Westerner, Howard Duckworth.

The Banks. Ann Wartinbee, Mary Peacock, and Chester Britt.

DANCER'S DELIGHT

As the strains of "Blue Moon" drift through the new gym, high school students know that another dance in the Jive Hive series has begun. The Swing Band provides enjoyable dance music for the series of eleven dances taking place between November and April.

Each Tuesday evening the eighteen musicians, under the direction of Mr. Armin Gossfeld, have a practice session for forthcoming dances and events. In addition to the Jive Hive dances, the band is occasionally heard contributing toward an assembly or other various programs. Two special projects of the Swing Band are the annual Variety Show and a program at Tomah Veterans' Hospital.

The band's musical selections range from the slow, dreamy selections — like that of the theme song, "Blue Moon" — to rhythmic jazz. Current hits and favorites of the past are combined to please all during an evening at a Jive Hive dance. The highly decorated band stands add flavor to the lively music. The members of the Swing Band play for the sheer enjoyment they receive in doing so. During the past year, portions of the dances have been broadcast over a local radio station.

All of the Jive Hive entertainment is sponsored by the La Crosse Department of Recreation.

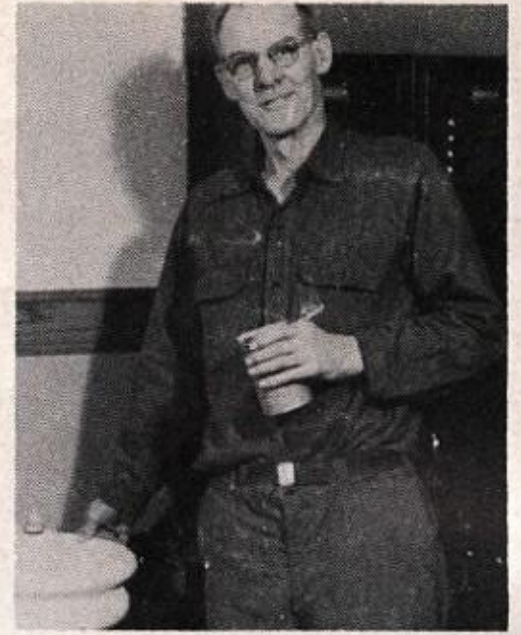

A new group at Logan this year, the Swing Choir, warms up.
